Perils of the Sea.

Great Suffering of Shipwrecked Sailors.

THE STORY OF THE SURVIVORS.

Graphic Description of How the Steamer Earmoor Foundered in a Cyclone—Three Hundred Miles Off Turk's Island. A List of the Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—The seven survivors of the ill-fated steamer Earmoor, which foundered at sea, Sept. 6, in a cyclone, 100 miles off Turk's Island while bound from Baltimore to Rio Janeiro, has arrived here from New York, whither they were brought by the steamer Santiago from Nassau. They tell a story of great suffering.

The Earmoor struck a terrific gale on Sept. 4, which increased in force, and at 11:30 a. m. the following day the vessel gave a lurch and foundered. As the steamer sank the port life boat floated off from the ship between the funnel and the main mast, and the men clung to the boat and scrambled in the second officer, second and third engineers, four sailors, three firemen and the cook. An effort was made to save the rest of the crew, and a drag was made of the painter, but the boat was blown away and the oars wrested from the hands of the men so that no more could be saved. The cry of the drowning men as they were dashed about by the mountainous waves were heard by the men in the boat, but they could not be reached and had to be abandoned to their fate. It was impossible to put the boat back for them.

It was an oversight that the boats had not been provisioned in anticipation of the calamity, as it would have saved the terrible sufferings of the survivors. Fortunately the boat drifted into the gulf stream and the air was warm, but this increased the intensity of their thirst.

"The horrors of hunger on the second day became awful," said one of the survivors, "and it increased as time wore on. We managed to pick up sea weed in the gulf stream, which gave us a little nutriment, and on the third day a flying fish was caught. This was immediately cut up into a portion for each man and devoured. We also captured a sea bat and sucked its blood and then ate its flesh after it had died in the sun. The first man to die was a seaman named William Robinson, of Baltimore, and the second was the third engineer, Thomas Hunt, of Philadelphia. One night while we were all asleep except a German fireman named Plagg, who was on watch, he suddenly became insane and jumped overboard. We were too weak to save him. We were without a compass, and steered by the sun by day and stars by night. Eleven vessels passed us, one a British bark, we are certain, saw us and deliberately left us to our fate. When 300 miles off Hatteras we were picked up by a schooner. I cannot describe in words our joy at the sight of this deliverance. We were so weak that we had to be lifted upon the vessel's deck, and one of our men, Ed. Johnson, a Norwegian, fell overboard and was drowned."

The Earmoor was largely owned in Philadelphia. The following is a list of those who were lost: Richard J. Grey, master; A. Painter, first mate; H. Soulas, first engineer; W. Dummer, boatswain; Stephen Perry, steward; all of Philadelphia; James Durand, mess boy; Robert Johnson, Carl J. Jurkeisen, Edward Johnson, William Robinson, James Chysiatude, Amedee Leangenore, Heinrich Maas, A. Flagg, James Sinclair and Herman Tonges, all of Baltimore.

Those who were saved are: H. Stone, second mate, and Thomas Metcorm, second engineer, of Philadelphia; and William Wright, cook, William Davis, Ludwig Leder, Carl Crane and A. Foster, of Baltimore.

Fatal Shooting Affair.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 22.—James Biddle, a farmer living near Payne, O., just across the state line, accused Andrew Fisher, a teamster, of criminal intimacy with his wife yesterday afternoon. A fight ensued, and Biddle stabbed Fisher with a large knife in the back of the neck. Fisher died within a few minutes. Biddle escaped and has not been captured.

A Valuable Gift.

MERIDEN, Conn., Oct. 22.—Hon. Isaac C. Lewis, the well known Universalist philanthropist, has decided his new block just completed at an expense of $75,000, to the city mission, a charitable organization here represented by trustees of all denominations. The block is the handsomest in Meriden.

Miners Leaving in.

NEGAUNCE, Mich., Oct. 22.—Saturday night the ground over the South Buffalo mine began sinking, and the movement extended until the Queen mine was also affected. Several acres of ground have sunk from ten to one hundred feet, and the movements still continue. Small mine buildings, railroad tracks and trees are engulfed. All the mines have quit work underground. The extent of the damage cannot be estimated till the caving in stops, and nothing can now be done to prevent the continuance of it, but the loss will be very heavy.

But One Juryman Lacking.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The efforts to secure a jury in the Cronin case were resumed yesterday. Eighteen veniremen were examined, twelve excused for cause, three challenged peremptorily by the state, two by the defense and one under consideration by the state when the court adjourned. The defense has three and the state twenty-five peremptory challenges left.

BASE BALL READING.

Those That Have Signed for Next Year. The Brotherhood.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—President Spalding, of the Chicago base ball club, said last night that he had signed no one for next season's play except Capt. Anson. Fred Pfeiffer, the second baseman, acknowledged to Mr. Spalding yesterday that he was at the head of the Brotherhood movement in this city, and added that the Chicago players would be in the field again next season in even better shape than it was in 1886, but not under the same direction.

Another of the leading spirits in the Brotherhood movement said to a reporter that all the Chicago players, with the exception of Anson, Burns and Hutchinson, had signed with the Brotherhood. In addition, he said, three new men are coming to Chicago, a pitcher, catcher and first baseman, so that Hutchinson's absence will not be missed. It is not the intention, he said, to draw players from the American Association unless the League draws from the Brotherhood's ranks. The circuit will include Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland and Buffalo in the west, and New York, Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia in the east.

The same authority gave J. M. Ward as captain and manager of the new Brooklyn team. Mr. Spalding did not appear in the least disturbed over the outlook. He said he would hold places open for the boys a reasonable length of time and then go on without them. He said he was prepared for battle. The League would go right ahead, there being plenty of talent awaiting recognition, and he thought the boys would come around in time.

Indianapolis Signs a Pitcher.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 22.—The Indianapolis Base Ball club yesterday signed Eitelborg, a young pitcher who has been on trial since the close of the season. None of the regular and reserved players have signed, nor were they requested to do so. President Bush says he thinks in spite of all talk to the contrary that the Indianapolis club will be essentially the same next year as it was during the past season.

Cleveland Not Signed.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 22.—None of the Cleveland players have signed. They were all notified by the club that they had been reserved and could sign at any time. The players have nothing to say, but they are evidently waiting for the result of the League meeting on Nov. 2.

Only One Man Signed.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—Pitcher Anderson is the only member of the Philadelphia club who has signed for next season.

SENSATIONAL SHOOTING.

Frank J. Bowman Instantly Killed by B. M. Chambers.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Frank J. Bowman, the well known lawyer, who has figured in so many matrimonial troubles here and in Chicago, was shot and instantly killed by B. M. Chambers, yesterday afternoon, at Ferguson, Mo., eighteen miles west of this city. The killing grew out of the trouble between the parties over the old Times newspaper. Chambers was a large stockholder and principal owner of the paper up to the time of its demise. Bowman was also financially interested in it. He bought, among other things, the Associated Press franchise of the paper, and has been in litigation over the matter with Chambers ever since. Yesterday afternoon Bowman, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Garrett, of St. Louis county, called at Mr. Chambers' home in Ferguson, for the purpose of levying an attachment on Chambers' life interest in his wife's estate, or whatever property he might be able to find. Chambers met Bowman and Garrett at the gate. Bowman said: "I have come to levy on your property."

"All right," responded Mr. Chambers, and he entered the house. Deputy Sheriff Garrett afterwards explained that he thought Chambers had gone to get some papers. He was mistaken, for in a few minutes Chambers stepped out into the yard with a double-barreled shotgun in his hands. "Garrett, you get out of this place, and get out quick," he said. Garrett walked away.

"Now, Bowman, I'll give you three minutes to get out of these grounds," continued Chambers. Bowman did not move, and in an instant Chambers raised his gun and poured the lead into Bowman's heart. Chambers then coolly walked into his house to await arrest, while Bowman's body lay in a pool of blood in the yard, nobody venturing to touch it until the coroner arrived. A large crowd immediately surrounded the place, but there was no demonstration.

Bowman practiced law here for many years and about three years ago removed to New York. Previous to his departure he figured in a couple of scandals. He sued his wife for divorce and afterwards compromised her suit on a cross bill, paying her a large sum of money. Then it was given out that he had married a woman in the east. As soon as this became known a Chicago woman, who claimed a common law marriage with Bowman, sued him for divorce in Chicago. The Chicago courts decided the woman was his wife and gave her the divorce. This left Bowman badly mixed up matrimonially. Chambers was president of the Butchers and Drovers' bank of this city which failed a dozen years ago, and afterwards bought out the old Times, staying with the paper till it failed.

Minister Dies of Old Age.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Oct. 22.—Rev. C. W. Wallace, D. D., the first settled pastor of the first church organized in this city, died last night from old age. Deceased was born in Bedford in 1805, and began preaching in 1838.

Condition of Idaho.

The Annual Report of Her Governor.

SHE IS IN THE LINE OF PROGRESS

Over One Hundred Thousand Inhabitants Demanding Statehood—Extent of the Practice of Polygamy—Other Dispatches from Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—George L. Shoup, governor of Idaho, in his annual report to the secretary of the interior, gives the important provisions of the constitution which will be submitted to the people for their adoption at an election to be held on the 5th of November. Idaho, he states, claims all the essential qualifications necessary to assume the dignity and responsibility of statehood. The steady growth in population and taxable property and the large increase in productions, the yield of valuable metals nearly doubling during the past year, all these show, the governor thinks, that Idaho is in the line of progress.

The report states that there are more than 25,000 people in Idaho who are adherents of the Mormon faith. The population of the territory is 113,777. Polygamy is not at the present time openly practiced in the territory, but the governor says that it is practiced secretly to a limited extent there seems to be no doubt as indictments are found in nearly every term of the court held, and a number of convictions have been made. He states, however, that he has reason to believe that a division of sentiment is springing up in the church on the subject of the practice of polygamy. Under the constitution polygamy will be prohibited, and the insertion of this provision may be regarded as the expression of the voice of the people of the territory on this subject.

The allotment of land under the severally act to the Indians, the governor says, is progressing satisfactorily and with little opposition on the part of the Indians. While the profits of the cattle grovers have been reduced recently, owing to the prevailing low prices for beef cattle in the eastern market, he says, there is a fair profit left to those engaged in the business.

Pricing Economy.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Numerous applications have been made to the secretary of the treasury for the position of inspector of foreign vessels at the different ports in the United States, and upon examination of the subject the secretary of the treasury has found that it is evident the controlling reason in most instances for the anxiety to secure these places is the limited amount of work the inspectors have had to perform. Several of these places have for a number of years past been sinecures, as not more than ten or a dozen foreign vessels would in a year take advantage of the law permitting their examination by officers of the United States government.

The secretary has therefore decided, in the interest of economy and good administration, to dispense altogether with the services of the inspectors of foreign vessels at Philadelphia, New Orleans and San Francisco, and to have the slight duties they would be called upon to do performed by the local inspectors. The salary of the foreign inspectors who have been dropped is $2,000 a year each.

Raum Assumes Control.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Gen. Green B. Raum Monday morning sat in the chair lately occupied by Corporal Tanner at the pension office. The new commissioner was at his office promptly at 9 o'clock and assumed control quietly. He had taken the oath of office on Saturday, and also met the subordinate officers of the office on that day. He received a number of friends who called to pay their respects, and made a tour of the different divisions to see the methods of procedure employed in each.

Must Go Back.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Secretary Windom has directed that James Hepburn be returned to Scotland, and Emil Dietze to Germany. Both came to this country under contract, the former landing at Port Huron, Mich., and the latter at New York. Hepburn came as a horse trainer, and Dietze under contract as a silk weaver in Eugene Staul's silk manufactory at Paterson, N. J.

Transportation Statistics.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Superintendent Porter of the census bureau, has appointed Charles H. Cooley, of Michigan, a special agent in charge of the collection of statistics relative to transportation. Mr. Cooley is a son of Chairman Cooley, of the interstate commerce commission.

Ready for Claims.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—It is announced at the state department that the Venezuelan mixed claims commission is now organized for business, and ready to consider at once all claims presented. The commission meets daily in The Sun building, on F street.

Work of the Chicago Grand Jury.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—The grand jury has returned an indictment against James J. West, late editor of The Chicago Times, and Charles E. Graham, his secretary, for fraudulently over-issuing stock of The Chicago Times company.

Offered a Good Position.

STEVENSVILLE, O., Oct. 22.—I. Franklin Patterson, principal of a public school here, has been offered the vice consul generalship to Bolivia. He has the offer under consideration.

FOREST FIRES.

Doing Great Damage in Wisconsin, and are Spreading with Great Rapidity.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Oct. 22.—Forest fires are doing a large amount of damage just west of here. Many acres of young timber are being destroyed. As everything is dry as tinder, buildings, hay and grain stacks are in danger. The air is so full of smoke that it is oppressive. One farmer, named Knistering, lost all his hay and straw, and barely saved his house and barn.

Word comes from Chippewa Falls, Wis., that forest fires along the railroads are spreading rapidly in all directions around the settlements. As yet no buildings have been destroyed. Timber is being damaged to a considerable extent. The smoke through the country is stifling, and trains have experienced delay in some quarters.

Barn Burned by an Incendiary.

INDEPENDENCE, O., Oct. 22.—A large barn belonging to William Berry, a well-to-do farmer, living four miles north of here, was burned last night with farming machinery, new self-binder, 250 bushels of wheat and other grain. The smoke through the country is stifling, and trains have experienced delay in some quarters. Loss about $1,500; small insurance.

Livery Stable and Eight Horses Burned. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 22.—Early yesterday morning fire was discovered in J. T. Scruggs' livery stable at Sweetwater, Tenn. The building and eight valuable horses were burned. Loss $2,000; no insurance. Mr. Scruggs was badly burned in attempting to save some of his stock.

Two Dwellings Destroyed.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 22.—Fire at 11 o'clock last night destroyed the residences of George Blunt and Wilt Bancroft, located in the southern part of the city with all the contents. Loss, $5,000; insurance, $1,200.

COTTON MOVEMENT.

An Interesting Statement from the New Orleans Cotton Exchange. NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—The New Orleans Cotton Exchange statement makes the net cotton movement across the Ohio, Mississippi and Potomac rivers to the mills of the north and of Canada, for the week ending Oct. 18, 24,186 bales, against 36,253 last year, and the total since Sept. 1, 66,643, against 97,969 last year. Total American mills taking north and south for the first seven weeks of the season, 313,783, against 369,169; of which by northern mills, 253,646, against 307,806. Amount of American crop that has come in sight during the past seven weeks, 1,529,575, against 1,305,387.

The statement shows that the net rail movement overland, which at end of the fourth week in September was ahead of last year by 4,397 bales, has since lost 35,724, and is now 31,326 behind last year. On the other hand, it shows that the amount of new crop in sight is equivalent to 23 per cent of last year's total crop. Up to the close of the corresponding week last year the percentage of the crop in sight was 18.8. Foreign exports for the seven weeks are 230,391 bales ahead of last year, while American spinners' takings show a deficit of 55,413, and American stocks at delivery ports and leading interior centers are 83,640 bales less at the close of the corresponding week last season.

NOT SOLD.

Mr. Bass Denies the Sale of His Foundries to English Capitalists.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—The Herald has the following from Ft. Wayne: A representative of The Herald called on John H. Bass, of this city, to inquire into the truth of the reported sale of his foundry and machine works to an English syndicate. Mr. Bass said:

"I have not sold my manufacturing interests to an English syndicate, nor to any other syndicate. It is true that I have been approached, perhaps ten times within a year, by gentlemen representing English capitalists who wanted me to put a price on my property, but such negotiations have not resulted in a sale, and are not likely to."

"I am making money, and have no desire to quit business as yet. Of course, I am in business for the money there is in it, and if I should receive an offer for my interest which I considered advantageous, there is no telling what I might do."

Robert J. Fisher, the confidential secretary of Mr. Bass, would neither confirm nor deny the report of the sale. Other parties who are in a position to know claim the negotiations for the sale of the works are still pending, and that an offer of $2,750,000 was made by London parties only last week, and that Mr. Bass is holding out for an even $3,000,000.

Offers $1,000 For a Single Newspaper.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—An advertisement in the New York papers offers $1,000 reward for an original copy of the newspaper containing a description of Drawbaugh's talking machine or telephone printed some time between 1870 and 1876. In one of the telephone suits begun in 1880 witnesses testified that they had read in a Harrisburg paper a description of a telephone at Drawbaugh's home. The case having been recently reopened, the attorneys interested in the Drawbaugh claim are anxious to find the paper. They assert that certain numbers of the Harrisburg papers on file in libraries have been destroyed.

Death of Frederick L. Bray.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 22.—Frederick L. Bray, grand secretary of the Independent Order of Good Templars, died at his home here yesterday of pneumonia, after an illness of several weeks.

Giblin Again Respite.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Governor Hill has granted Murderer Giblin an additional respite of thirty days.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, OCT. 22, 1889.

MIDDLESBOROUGH has neither charter nor town organization. The boomers are "a little too previous" it seems.

EX-GOVERNOR CHARLES FOSTER wasn't greeted by a very enthusiastic crowd of Republicans at Ripley last Saturday.

FORAKER's fate will be settled two weeks from to-day. And there is no question that his campaign is in a badly damaged condition just at present.

HON. JOHN M. LANGSTON, the colored Virginian who is over in Ohio trying to save Governor Foraker, is announced to speak at Ripley Friday afternoon, November 1st. Hon. W. G. Lyon will speak at Manchester next Saturday evening.

OVER $600,000 worth of real estate was sold at Middlesborough last week—that is the sale footed up that amount, but it's a question whether the property sold is worth that much. They seem to be over-doing the boom business down there.

HON. ROGER Q. MILLS thinks Cleveland is much stronger with the people than ever before and that the fight in 1892 will be between "the man of destiny" and Harrison. In that event tariff reform will be the battle cry of the Democrats.

THE selection of Green B. Raum for Pension Commissioner was a good one. He had to be called in years ago to straighten out the revenue department when the whisky frauds had disgraced Grant's administration, and it will take some one like him to untangle the affairs of the Pension Department.

If half the reports in regard to gambling in this city are true, the grand jury ought to have no trouble to locate the "dens" and spot the guilty parties. The "sports" are generally known, and the facts can be got at with little trouble if the grand jury will go about it in earnest. Get the "sports" in the grand jury room and then "put the screws to 'em."

Cause and Effect.

Cause: President Harrison.

Effect: 1. Democratic gain of 18,000 in the popular vote and 12 seats in the Legislature in Kentucky.

2. Indianapolis went Democratic by a majority of 1,791 instead of Republican by 774, as it went the last time, and this in spite of the fact that the Delphi (Ind.) Journal is moved to complain that all the patronage that has gone to the State, which is far from inconsiderable, has gone to Indianapolis.

3 In the Connecticut town elections the Democrats carried seven towns more than they did last year, when they carried the State.—National Democrat.

Swearing Judges off the Bench.

The Court of Appeals recently rendered an important decision in reference to swearing Judges off the bench. The ruling was made in the case of Vance against Field, taken up from Louisville. The opinion by Chief Justice Lewis is as follows:

First—In order to require the Judge of a court to vacate the bench, or deprive him of the power to try an action pending in his court, the facts upon which is based the belief of the litigant that the Judge will not give him a fair trial must be stated in the affidavit, and they must be of such a character as would prevent an official of personal integrity from presiding in the court; but when an affidavit stating such facts is filed the facts stated and the statement of the belief founded therein must be taken as true; they can not be put in issue or called in question by the Judge.

The plaintiff in an ordinary action pending in Louisville Law and Equity Court filed an affidavit stating that the Judge of the court would not afford him a fair and impartial trial, but as the Judge, notwithstanding the affidavit was filed and objection was made to the jurisdiction of the court, proceeded to hear the case, the plaintiff had the case docketed in the Jefferson Court of Common Pleas, and the Judge of that court having refused to hear any motion or make any order in the case, the plaintiff has applied to this court for a mandamus to compel him to try the case. Held—That the affidavit filed by the plaintiff was not sufficient to entitle him to a transfer of the case to another court, and as the case is still pending in the Louisville Law and Equity Court the Judge of the Jefferson Court of Common Pleas had no jurisdiction.

Second—A party may, even after the issues are formed, file an affidavit to require the Judge to vacate the bench, provided it is based upon facts discovered since the issues were formed.

Trundle-Bed Marriages.

A young gentleman of the mature age of nineteen years, the son of a Fourth avenue retail merchant in Louisville, crossed the river to Jeffersonville a few days since, where he married a young lady several years younger than himself. Returning home to receive the parental blessings the youthful husband was confronted by an advertisement in the newspapers, signed by his father, in words and effect as follows:

"Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any liabilities contracted by my son."

If the example of this stern parent be generally followed, we shall hear of fewer trundle-bed marriages.—Frankfort Capital.

THE APPELLATE CLERKSHIP.

A Lively Contest Brewing Over the Best Paying Office in the State.

The contest for Clerk of the Court of Appeals will come off next August, and it promises to be a lively one. Democratic candidates for the position are numerous and the fight for the nomination is already on. Wires are being laid and, no doubt, combinations made to pluck the "plum."

"S. M. B." writes an interesting letter to the Courier-Journal in reference to the subject, in which he says: "The representation in the convention will doubtless be based on the vote cast for Cleveland and Thurman in 1888, allowing one delegate to each two hundred votes. This will make the number of delegates about 925, so that it will take more than 450 votes to nominate. It is highly probable that the convention will take numerous ballots before the nomination is made, and the chances are that a combination of candidates will win in 1890, as it did in 1882. * * * The office is worth between $8,000 and $10,000 a year, and the work demands the attention of two persons. It is, therefore, very natural for the average candidate to grasp the combination idea. Let a strong man from Eastern Kentucky combine his support with that of a strong man from Western Kentucky, and it will be sufficient to nominate one of them. The one chosen becomes the Clerk and makes the other his Deputy. It is as easy as falling off a log. But there was a very perceptible kick against the combination in 1882, mainly because it defeated Wolford.

"But while it is impossible to say, at this time, who will be nominated, it is not difficult to name the leading candidates. There are, at least, four who will have sufficient strength to make each a formidable competitor. Naming these entirely on my own responsibility, they are: Maj. Geo. M. Adams, of Knox; Mr. (Geo. H. Madden, of Louisville; Capt. Thos. G. Poore, of Hickman, and Capt. James B. Martin, of Barren. These gentlemen are mentioned without intending in any way to disparage the claims or chances of other aspirants. They appear to have made a more extended canvass, and in that way have acquired prominence in the race.

"Maj. Adams is one of the best politicians in Kentucky. Since the days when he made his gallant fights for Congress in the old Ninth district, he has had a strong hold on the people of the State. He would make a nearly clean sweep in Eastern Kentucky, but for the presence of other aspirants. One of these is Capt. John Rogers, late a Deputy United States Marshal, who lives in Maj. Adams' own county. Another is Mr. Frank Brinkley, a Louisville merchant, formerly of Pulaski County. Both of these gentlemen will have considerable local support.

"George Madden is sure to get a large vote. He is handsome, whole-souled and very popular. He is one of the 'boys,' and the 'boys' are going to rally around him. Capt. Poore, who has been a thoroughly efficient Deputy in the office for the past eight years, has friends in every county in the State. With the members of the bar he is particularly strong. Captain Martin has made friends wherever he has gone, and he is fortunate in having some positive supporters who never fail to put in a word for him where it will do the most good.

"Ordinarily, I would feel pretty safe in saying that one of the four candidates I have named will be chosen; but, with the complications likely to arise, it is probable that the nomination may go to a man who, at the start, will have only a score or two of votes."

The Latest Slang.

(New York Sun.)

The latest slang? Yes, but you mustn't call it that. In conversation it's "le dernier cri." You abhor a "pretty dress," you wear "a fetching gown;" your hat with its blackbirds upon it is not "stylish," it is "swagger," and you are not acquainted with fashionable people, but know all the "swells." You no longer hate a man, but simply "don't like him a little bit." You are not in society, but "in the swim," and nothing succeeds, but it "goes." You don't cry when a friend goes away, but you announce that you are "weak enough to blubber." What would our grandmothers have said?

Dress and Fashions.

Velvet muffs will be carried this winter to match bonnets.

A few jackets are pilot-shaped, but as a rule, this season's jackets are not tight fitting.

The waist coat of a jacket is usually of a contrasting shade of color, braided. The redingote is among leading styles and will be adapted to dinner, evening and visiting toilets, as well as to dresses for the street.

Flat skirts and plain bodices prevail, but not to the exclusion of draped skirts and shirred waists.

Here and There.

Mrs. Julia Pickett is the guest of the family of Mr. Frank Perrie.

Miss Jennie Clifton Taylor, of Falmouth, is visiting Miss Mamie Culbertson.

PRICES CURRENT.

Review of the Money, Stock and Cattle Quotations for Oct. 21.

WALL STREET, NEW YORK.—Money on call was stringent at 3@9 per cent.

Currency notes, 117 bid; four coupon, 127 bid; four-and-a-half coupon, 105½.

The opening of the stock market this morning was heavy to weak, and the declines from Saturday's closing figures ranged from ¼ to ½ per cent. Decided weakness was developed in the early dealings and material losses were sustained in all the active stocks. In point of activity the Sugar and Oil Trusts, St. Paul, Lackawanna, Reading, Atchafalpa, Burlington and New York and New England took the lead. Lackawanna and Rock Island showed most weakness, the former declining 1½ and the latter 1½. Sugar Trusts declined 2½ per cent to 76½ and Cotton-seed Oil 1½ to 42½. At 11 o'clock the market was fairly active and weak. In the hour to noon prices even went lower. There was considerable selling of the leaders and further declines from the prices current at 11 o'clock. At this writing the market is dull.

Glenn-Daly.

Mr. Edward Glenn and Miss Katie Daly were married at 9 o'clock this morning. The ceremony was solemnized at St. Patrick's Church in the presence of a large audience of their friends and relatives. Rev. J. B. Glorieux, the venerable pastor of the church, officiated and spoke the words that united the happy couple in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The bride was attired in a beautiful dress, amethyst colored, trimmed with cut-steel passementerie; bonnet to match. She carried a bouquet of Mareschal Neil roses. The groom wore the conventional black. Mr. Dan Daly, brother of the bride, and Messrs. M. A. Swift, M. P. Redmond and Thomas Cummins acted as ushers. Miss Mary O'Donnell presided at the organ, and rendered the wedding march. While the bridal party waited in the sanctuary for the officiating minister, the duet, "O Salutaris" was sung by Mr. Frank O'Donnell and Mrs. Hayden. At the conclusion of the ceremony the choir rendered "Magnificat," after which the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where breakfast was served.

The couple leave on the F. F. V. this afternoon for a trip to Cincinnati and other points. Their friends—and they are many—join the BULLETIN in warm congratulations and well wish as for the couple's happiness and prosperity.

Railway News.

Covington will most likely get the Kentucky Central machine shops. All that is asked is that the city furnish water for them for 50 years.

There is no one among the younger generation of railroad men, who, after winning fame as a lawyer, has displayed more signal ability than President M. E. Ingalls, whose brilliant success in bringing out of bankruptcy and putting on a dividend basis the old Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago has already made him President of two greater corporations, the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis and the Chesapeake and Ohio—[New York Mail and Express.

The C. & O.'s earnings of the first week of October show an increase of $26,623.40 over the corresponding period of last year, the total earnings being $132,073.98 for the first week of October, 1889. Of this increase $17,702.33 was in the passenger department. "Those who have kept track of the earnings for past four months," says the Cincinnati Gazette, "will observe that the same increase for the rest of the year will give the new organization an income of $7,000,000. This is beyond expectation, and with the one hundred miles of additional side track and double track to be put on the mountains this winter, giving increased facilities of handling the mineral products of the New River District next year, one can stick a pin in the dividend attachment to the C. & O.'s stock for 1890."

Sphar's All Right.

A week or so ago an item, obtained from some of our exchanges, was published in the BULLETIN, stating that "S. M. Sphar, a bible agent from Newport, was wanted at Mt. Olivet for giving a bogus check and beating the Louisiana House out of a board bill. It also stated that he had skipped to Ohio.

A letter from Mr. R. H. Stevenson, of the Bracken Chronicle, was received yesterday saying the item was entirely without foundation. Mr. Sphar is at present in Augusta and has been for some time. He never gave any bogus check, and the Louisiana House was not beaten out of anything.

Stock and Crops.

HELENA.

Thomas Marshall spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Lewisburg.

Several from our place attended the Baptist Centennial at Mayslick Sunday.

Misses Annie Kirkland and Nellie Story, of Hillsboro, paid us a pleasant visit Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. John Willett and son, Hardie, of Shelbyville, Ky., are visiting relatives in the neighborhood.

BERNARD.

R. Soward threshed his clover Friday. The yield was rather slim.

Miss Anna Montoy has returned from a thirteen months' visit in Missouri.

Professor W. S. Senteney is teaching the school at this place. There are twenty-five pupils enrolled.

Professor Bowman, of Ohio, gave a slight-of-hand entertainment at the school house Saturday night.

Charles Cole, our enterprising merchant, has returned from a business trip to the Queen City.

Bernard is on the K. C. R. R., four miles from Maysville. It is a railway station, and has a dry goods and grocery store and a post-office.

MAYSICK.

J. H. Crenshaw, of Leeburg, brother-in-law of F. M. Tindler, is here spending a few days.

Mrs. F. M. Tindler returned from her father's, at Lewisburg last week, with her two children—all well.

J. A. Jackson left on the K. C. R. R. Tuesday for Cincinnati to select a full stock of winter goods.

W. A. Hill, of Paris, the marble works man, was here last week, placing some of his nice stones in our cemetery.

J. A. Jackson has now on hand a fresh supply of Haws' celebrated hog cholera medicine—a sure cure. Try a package.

John Adams, a former Mason County boy, but now of Kentucky, was here last week, having some bones placed in his father's and mother's graves.

Joseph Chanslor, of Missouri, is here visiting his old friends and looking after his wife's interest in the Dr. Williams' estate, which was sold on the 12th inst.

Dr. Cleon Owens, of Maysville, was here last Friday, examining some gentlemen for a L. Stanton who are taking out the poles with him. Stanton is doing a good business for the Washington.

T. G. Ingram and wife packed up last week and moved back to Vanceburg. He thinks of moving to California. He is a clever gentleman and we were sorry to give him up. May success attend him.

We noticed a stove at the Stonewall House a few days since from Benson & Co., of Maysville, called the "Orient," which performs like a charm. To say the least of it, it is a rattler from way back.

We took in Paris last Thursday, intending to be present at the nuptials of Dr. J. H. Davis and Miss Emma Hunkeler, on being a part of the wedding of the pleasure. Such an immense crowd was present that one-half of them could not be admitted in the church. But we had an enjoyable time, nevertheless. Met many of our old friends, among them Bruce Champ, who seemed as composed as a cat with her kittens, and last, though not least, young Mr. Laddock, of the Kentuckian, who expressed himself hopeful of securing "a rib" during the matrimonial wave that is now sweeping over the country.

MT. CARMEL.

Robert Marshall, Sr., of Sardis, visited his brother, Hon. Charles Marshall, last week.

Edward Taylor, brother of our Town Marshal, gave the town a flying visit last week.

Arthur Glascock, son of A. R. Glascock of Maysville, was here Sunday visiting relatives.

J. B. Glascock and wife, of Flemingsburg, were visiting relatives here the latter part of last week.

D. P. Glascock sold out his interest in the Glascock & Burdette laundry at Maysville last week, and is now home to stay.

Hon. Chas. Boone and family, who were visiting the family of Captain Nute, returned to their home at Covington, Ind., after a pleasant stay of two weeks.

The Eastern Kentucky Holiness Association holds its meeting here this week. Some twenty-five ministers are expected. Everybody invited to attend.

Prof. E. D. Luman, who has for the past two months been teaching penmanship in Bourbon County, returned last week on a visit of a few days to friends and relatives.

Repairs will be commenced immediately on the sidewalks, etc., of the M. E. Church, South. We are glad to hear this, as the sidewalks are really in a dangerous fix, and should be attended to immediately.

J. R. Turner will remove to Flemingsburg shortly, where he will follow his trade—that of a blacksmith—more extensively than he did here. We are sorry to lose Mr. Turner, as he is one of our best citizens, but will wish him success in his new undertaking.

Mrs. Florence Foxworthy, wife of Charles E. Foxworthy, was threatened with locked jaw last week, but is now out of danger. She had been fishing in the North Fork near her home, and in her endeavor to take a fish off the hook it flung her in the hand, making a very painful wound.

Several of the young folks from here attended the nutting party at Ruggles' camp grounds Saturday, gotten up by the young people of Maysville. Maysville, Mt. Carmel and Tolleboro were all well represented. The day was fine and the woods resounded with the shouts and merry peals of laughter of the young people, as they went from tree to tree picking up the nuts that were on the ground. At 1 o'clock dinner was spread and partaken of by all, with a relish that would make an American Indian ashamed of himself. After dinner, the crowd divided or paired off and generally saw no more of one another until time for the homeward journey. All enjoyed themselves, if they didn't get many nuts.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Tammons, postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchants, same town, says: "Electric bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a lease on life. Only 50 cents a bottle, at J. James Wood's drug store."

A Very Critical Point.

Serious Dispute Between Portugal and England.

IT MAY LEAD TO A GREAT WAR.

The Delagoa Bay Railroad Seizure the Bone of Contention—"Jack the Ripper" in Munich, Bavaria—Terrible Ravages of Cholera in Turkey—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The negotiations between the Portuguese foreign minister and Lord Salisbury on the subject of the recent Delagoa bay dispute have reached a critical point, and it is evident that the Portuguese government, while desirous themselves of making the most ample reparation for the high handed manner in which the property of British subjects in that quarter of the world was confiscated by Portuguese officials, are prevented from doing so by the bitter tone of the Lisbon and the provincial press.

The newspapers are almost a unit in breathing hatred of the English, and in protesting against any reparation whatever to the owners of the Delagoa Bay railroad, seized upon a paltry pretext by the Portuguese authorities there. Well informed diplomats still fear trouble as a result of these complications.

Ferry Talks.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—In a letter published in L'Estafette M. Jules Ferry says that the occupation of Tunis by the French was expected by the English government after England's forces had occupied Cyprus, and that such action was also foreseen by Italy. M. Ferry also says that while he was in office he made no engagement with Prime Minister Crispi, of Italy, concerning Tunis. Continuing, he says that in July, 1880, the Italian government communicated with M. Delcayre, then premier of France, with regard to the compensation to be made for the occupation of Tunis. The communication, however, produced no effect. President Carnot is making arrangements for a visit to Algiers.

A Reprieved Man Executed.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The execution on the 30th of last month of a man for murder in Andalusia, Spain, twenty-four hours after a reprieve had actually been signed by the queen and forwarded, has occasioned so much excitement in Spain that the government has drawn up a bill to give a telegraphic message in such cases the force of a formal written order. In this case the authorities charged with the execution were notified by telegraph that the reprieve had been signed and was then on its way, but they insisted they were powerless to delay the execution in the absence of the formal documents.

Strange Isanity.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—Physicians who have examined Klaiber, the man who attempted to Prince William, of Wurtemberg, at Ludwigsburg Sunday, have declared him insane. It is ascertained that he is a member of an Anarchist society, whose members are sworn to kill princes. Recently lots were drawn to decide which of the members of the society should kill Prince William, and Klaiber was chosen.

Gladstone's Coming Speech.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Mr. Gladstone's coming speech at Southport next Wednesday afternoon is regarded as the one great event in politics of the week. The tickets of admission to the hall where the great Liberal orator is to speak are all exhausted, and enormous sums are offered for a single one by admirers of the Grand Old Man.

The Ripper in Munich.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Munich, Bavaria, has a Jack the Ripper mystery quite as profound as that of Whitechapel. Two girls were found murdered in the streets there early yesterday morning and their bodies mutilated in a manner to lead to the suspicion that the London fiend had started on his travels. Great excitement prevails in Munich.

Mrs. Huntington's Wedding.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The marriage of Prince Hatzfeldt and Miss Huntington will be solemnized on Oct. 28, in the Brompton Oratory. Bishop Patterson will perform the ceremony. The wedding will be a quiet affair. Only particular friends of the two families have been invited.

Ravages of Cholera.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 22.—The cholera is still making frightful ravages in the valley of the Tigris and Euphrates. There have been 7,000 deaths within the past three months, and there are as yet no signs of the abatement of the scourge.

The Strike to Be Continued.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—At a meeting of the striking miners in Pas de Calais, held yesterday, it was resolved to continue the strike. The vote was unanimous in each case. The meetings were held at Dreuourt Courviers, Dourges, Lievin and Ostricourt.

Wants to Be a Private Citizen.

VIENNA, Oct. 22.—Archduke John Salvator, of the Austrian imperial House of Hapsburg, has publicly expressed the desire to resign all his titles and appointments and hereafter live the life of a private citizen.

Caught Smuggling.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Thirteen men, all sailors, have been sentenced at Aachen for smuggling corn into Germany. Their operations during the past year aggregated hundreds of tons of grain.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The Zanzibar agent of the London Missionary society reports that the natives have driven out the Jesuits from Unjambe and destroyed their mission stations.

The Czar's Donation.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—The czar and his family have donated 400,000 roubles for the sufferers by the famine in Montenegro.

A Suicide's Fortune.

WINONA, Minn., Oct. 22.—An unexpected sequel to a terrible tragedy has just occurred here. May last Lena Weinberg, for twenty-five years house-keeper of the old Huff house, committed suicide. Saturday four trunks belonging to her were opened by the administrator to look up heirs. The contents were of no value, but false bottoms were found in all four trunks, containing $12,116 in gold, bank notes, English sovereigns and other foreign money. A great deal of the money is old, and worth considerable premium over the face value.

Small pox on Pelee Island.

The physicians found that Dr. Snyder has a well developed case of smallpox, but is improving. Of sixty exposed no cases have yet developed. They are isolated, and Dr. Snyder is kept four miles from the main part of the island. About two-thirds of the residents have been vaccinated, and all are in good spirits.
